

DIFFERENT WAYS TO TELL YOUR TRUTH

This information sheet explains the different ways you can tell your truth to Yoorrook.

You can tell your truth in the best way for you, including:

- Making a nuther-mooyoop (submission). This can be in any form, such as writing, an audio or video recording, or through a truth-telling object such as an artwork, cultural artefact, or photo. You can make a nuther-mooyoop as an individual, family, community or Traditional Owner group. For more information see Information sheet 3: Making a nuther-mooyoop.
- Joining a truth-telling forum, such as a yarning circle or workshop, round table, cultural site or community visits or cultural activity. Yoorrook will advertise these forums as its work progresses.
- Being a witness in a wurrek tyerrang (public hearing). Witnesses will be invited by Yoorrook based on their direct experiences and perspectives on matters within Yoorrook's Terms of Reference and preparedness and readiness to engage in truth-telling in a public setting. Broad representation across families, communities, regions, gender and other characteristics will also be taken into account. For general information on the wurrek tyerrang process, see Practice Direction 1: Wurrek tyerrang (Public Hearings).

Nuther-mooyoop - Boonwurrung word for 'truth'. This is what is often referred to as making
'a submission'.

Wurrek tyerrang - Wergaia word for
'speaking together'.
This is what Yoorrook will convene as public hearings.

There will be many ways and opportunities for you to participate in Yoorrook. As its work progresses, Yoorrook may call for information on particular themes, publish discussion papers, or ask for your views in other ways.

We encourage all First Peoples to participate in Yoorrook's work. All ways of telling your truth are of equal importance. All contribute to Yoorrook's work.
