

Mini Submission - Education

Making a submission will help Yoorrook recommend changes to right the wrongs of the past and make a better shared future for everyone in this place we call home. You can answer as many questions as you like. Questions that require a response will be marked *(required).

There are three sections to this submission form:

PART A asks for basic information about you

PART B asks you to share your story about education

PART C asks about how you would like your information protected and used.

PART A: About you

Q1: Name?

Leave blank if you prefer not to say

Roy Perry

Q2: Who is/are your mob/s?

Leave blank if you prefer not to say

PART B: Truths

Q3: How could First Peoples' history and culture be better taught at school?

Schools and education facilities need to teach Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture and history from their perspective not the "white" perspective of history.

Q4: How could Aboriginal kids be better supported at school?

Kids need more safety and recognition of their culture. Kids need to feel safe when engaging within their culture. In the same breath they need to not be fully singled out because of their cultural background

Q5: How else could we improve the Victorian education system for First Peoples?

Teach the respect of culture from the roots of education such as kindergarten for allowing culture to be a part of society from a young age.
 And university for teachers, so that they have the appropriate training for when they start.
