

Professor Andrew Gunstone

Associate Deputy Vice-Chancellor Reconciliation, Federation University

Co-Chair Board of Directors, Reconciliation Victoria

Submission to Yoorrook Justice Commission, 17 April 2024

The History and Impact of Stolen Wages in Victoria

Document List

1. Parliament of Australia, The Senate. 2006. Standing Committee on Legal and Constitutional Affairs – Unfinished Business: Indigenous Stolen Wages. Commonwealth of Australia.
2. Public Record Office Victoria (PROV). 2007. Request for Quotation (RFQ) Indigenous Stolen Wages – Preliminary Investigation. State of Victoria.
3. History Matters Consulting Historians. 2009. Indigenous Stolen Wages Preliminary Investigation – Stage 1 and Stage 2 Final Report to Aboriginal Affairs Victoria and Public Record Office Victoria.
4. Legislative Council. 2009. Minister for Aboriginal Affairs Statement on Stolen Wages Report.
5. Gunstone, A. and Heckenberg, S. 2009. 'The Government Owes a Lot of Money to Our People': A History of Stolen Wages in Victoria. Australian Scholarly Publishing.
6. Public Interest Law Clearing House (PILCH). 2010. Indigenous Labour Denied – Stolen Wages in Victoria. A Response to the Victorian Government 'Indigenous Stolen Wages Preliminary Investigation': Stage One and Two Reports.
7. Gunstone, A. 2010. 'A History of Exclusion: Indigenous People and Social Security'. Journal of Australian Indigenous Issues 13(2): 34-44.
8. Gunstone, A. 2012. 'Indigenous Peoples and Stolen Wages in Victoria, 1869-1957'. In Fijn, N., Keen, I., Lloyd, C. and Pickering, M. (eds.). Indigenous Participation in Australian Economies II. Canberra: ANU press, 181-195.
9. Herbert Smith Freehills. 2013. Comparative Analysis of Indigenous Trust Fund Repayment Schemes in Australia – Report for Wampan Wages.
10. Gunstone, A. 2014. 'Indigenous Stolen Wages and Campaigns for Reparations in Victoria'. Indigenous Law Bulletin 8(12): 3-7.
11. Parliament of South Australia, Aboriginal Lands Parliamentary Standing Committee, Indigenous Stolen Wages. 2019. Witness Report – Professor Andrew Gunstone.