Q3: How could First Peoples' history and culture be better taught at school?

It is important to start at pre-school/Prep & continue through to tertiary education. It should be taught to Indigenous & non-Indigenous students to help with understanding & reconciliation

Q4: How could Aboriginal kids be better supported at school?

It is important that Indigenous staff are present and have or begin ~~to~~ a education degree/certificates funded by their employer(s). Non-Indigenous staff must be culturally competent with more than a few hours training. Compulsory volunteer work in community should occur as part of their regular training. Lastly, culturally appropriate resources from Prep- Uni

Q5: How else could we improve the Victorian education system for First Peoples?

I can only talk about the NSW Education System. I did study at Monash University and there needs to be more support for Indigenous students not studying at Clayton campus. There should also be more financial & welfare support for regional and rural student to move & study in the metro areas.
