

Health and healthcare submission form

Making a submission will help Yoorrook recommend changes to right the wrongs of the past and make a better shared future for everyone in this place we call home. You can answer as many questions as you like. Questions that require a response will be marked (required).

There are three sections to this submission form:

PART A asks for basic information about you

PART B asks you to share your truths about health and the healthcare system

PART C asks about how you would like your information protected and used.

PART A: About you

Q1: Name?

Leave blank if you prefer not to say

Scott CAMPBELL

Q2: Who is/are your mob/s?

Leave blank if you prefer not to say

Wiradjuri, NW - Kennedy, Carroll, Freeman, Coe's

PART B: Truths

Q3: What has been your experience of the Victorian health system? Have you faced any challenges or barriers to accessing care?

Biggest barrier is accessing VAMS because I reside at Caulfield and catch public transport

Q4: Is the mainstream health system culturally safe for you? Why or why not?

I have had no issues

Q5: What are examples of good practice or programs happening at ACCHOs that could be adopted more widely across the health sector?

Dental services at VAMH have been difficult to get an appointment. AMS in NSW & QLD cities have had me in appointments within weeks and not months

Q6: What changes to the current health system would you like to see?

Only as suggested above re: VAHS. No other issues for me.

PART C: Protecting your information

Indigenous Data Sovereignty asserts the right of Indigenous Peoples to own, control, access and possess data that derive from them.

The Yoorrook Justice Commission applies Indigenous Data Sovereignty protocols to the collection, storage, and use of First People's information. These protocols respect the decisions you make on how your information is used, protected, accessed, and shared now and in the future.

Yoorrook uses submissions to inform our inquiries. We will not use your submission for any other purpose without contacting you for permission.

This section is about your choice on whether you want your submission published or not, and whether to include your name, or not. If a submission is published it is a public document that can be read by anyone and Yoorrook may refer to or quote from published submissions in our reports.

Please choose one of the following options: * (required)

- I agree to Yoorrook publishing my submission including my name (or my group's name if it is a group submission)
- I agree to Yoorrook publishing my submission anonymously without my name (or my group's name if it is a group submission)
- Do not publish my submission (Yoorrook will still read your submission and it will inform our work, but Yoorrook will not publish it on our website or refer to it or quote from it in our reports. Your submission will be kept confidential.)

Please note that Yoorrook will not publish all or part of a submission if it considers it inappropriate to do so.
