PART B: Truths

Q3: How could First Peoples' history and culture be better taught at school?

Starting by being honest & taking full accountability in Australia's past. Hearing first-hand about first-nations peoples experience from all ages. Teaching kids from a young age how they can support first-nations peoples & encouraging community support & activities.
 Ensuring that we uplift these communities & celebrate their culture.

Q4: How could Aboriginal kids be better supported at school?

Better education for teachers & supervisors on how to better understand Aboriginal children, their past, struggles & how they can support them. Same with children, creating a deeper understanding of culture & how Australia's past continues to affect First Nations kids & working together to build community.

Q5: How else could we improve the Victorian education system for First Peoples?

By implementing a support program to encourage Indigenous kids to get in touch with their culture & have a hybrid ~~teach~~ hands-on learning program so they can feel more connected to their history.
