one of the best feeling about being an Aboriginal person ~~to~~ living in victoria is meeting new people, alot of places & events to go to & lastly having ^{to see} community supports for the homeless people.

Q4: What are the most important things you want people to know about your experiences?

One of the most important things, I want people to know about my experiences is that life is not hard if you learn to believe in yourself and challenge yourself by trying out new things.

Q5: What does self-determination look like to you?

self-determination to me, is like feeling determined and trusting yourself that anything is possible, even if it looks difficult/hard thing to challenge yourself with.

Q6: What changes do you want to see for your children and grandchildren?

Some of the most significant changes I want to see in my children & grandchildren are; making sure they have good moral values/behaviour, also for them to learn to respect those who are older than them
